

Arranged by Giovanni Abbiati: A Journey of Love, Loss, and Redemption

Arranged by Giovanni Abbiati is a powerful and moving novel that explores the complexities of love, loss, and redemption. Set in the beautiful and vibrant city of Rome, the story follows the lives of two people from very different worlds who find themselves drawn together by a shared desire for connection.

Isabella is a young woman from a wealthy and influential Italian family. She has been raised to believe that she will one day marry a man of her parents' choosing. However, when she meets Giovanni, a charming and ambitious artist from a humble background, she begins to question everything she has ever known.
