In this heartwarming and humorous novel, we meet a cast of unforgettable characters who are all searching for their own slice of happiness. There's Sarah, a single mother who is trying to find love again after her husband's tragic death. There's Jake, a rancher who has given up on love after a failed relationship. And there's Emily, a young woman who is just starting to explore the world of dating.

As these characters' lives intersect, they learn that love can come in all shapes and sizes. It can be found in the most unexpected places, and it can heal even the deepest wounds.

Cupid, Texas is a novel about the power of love to conquer all. It's a story about family, community, and the importance of never giving up on your dreams.
