Synopsis

In the heart of New York City, the Rosetti Crime Family reigns supreme. Led by the charismatic and ruthless Don Carlo Rosetti, the family controls a vast empire of illicit activities. But even in this world of violence and danger, there is a place for love.

Isabella Bianchi is a young woman from a respectable family. She is beautiful, intelligent, and has everything she could ever want. But her life is turned upside down when she meets Nicolo Rosetti, the Don's handsome and enigmatic son.

Nicolo is drawn to Isabella's innocence and spirit. He sees in her a chance to escape the darkness of his family's business. But their forbidden love is put to the test when their families become embroiled in a deadly war.

As the bodies pile up, Isabella and Nicolo must find a way to protect their love from the violence that threatens to consume them both.
