

Heartbreak High: The Inside Story

In 1994, a new teen drama called Heartbreak High hit Australian screens and quickly became a ratings sensation. The show followed the lives of a group of students at Hartley High School, a fictional high school in Sydney's western suburbs. With its realistic storylines, relatable characters, and edgy soundtrack, Heartbreak High became a cultural phenomenon, spawning a merchandise empire and launching the careers of several young actors.

Now, for the first time, the full story of Heartbreak High can be told in Heartbreak High: The Inside Story. Written by journalist and former Heartbreak High writer Neil McMahon, this book reveals the behind-the-scenes drama, the creative challenges, and the personal stories of the cast and crew who brought this iconic series to life.
