In this beguiling fourth volume of Letters of Note, the editors have compiled an extraordinary collection of the most romantic, passionate, and heartbreaking love letters ever written.

From the love sonnets of Elizabeth Barrett Browning to the passionate letters of Frida Kahlo to Diego Rivera, from the tender missives of John Keats to Fanny Brawne to the poignant love letters of soldiers during wartime, these letters capture the full range of human emotion.

With its beautiful design and insightful commentary, Letters of Note Love is the perfect gift for Valentine's Day, anniversaries, or any other special occasion. It is also a must-read for anyone who loves great literature or is simply curious about the human heart.

Here are just a few of the many love letters included in this collection:

- Elizabeth Barrett Browning to Robert Browning
- Frida Kahlo to Diego Rivera
- John Keats to Fanny Brawne
- Vincent van Gogh to Theo van Gogh
- George Orwell to Eileen O'Shaughnessy
- Virginia Woolf to Vita Sackville-West
- Nelson Mandela to Winnie Mandela
- John F. Kennedy to Jacqueline Kennedy
- Martin Luther King Jr. to Coretta Scott King
