Opera In The Flesh: Sexuality In Operatic Performance is a groundbreaking new book that explores the ways in which sexuality is represented and performed in opera.

Author Dr. Rebecca Harris draws on her extensive experience as an opera singer and scholar to provide a unique and insightful look at this fascinating topic. She examines how sexuality is expressed through music, text, staging, and performance, and how it has evolved over time.

Opera In The Flesh is a must-read for anyone interested in opera, sexuality, or performance studies. It is a thought-provoking and illuminating book that will change the way you think about opera forever.
