Synopsis

Sophie First Spanking is a novel that explores the traditional roles of men and women in a modern world. The story follows Sophie, a young woman who is struggling to find her place in life. She meets William, a traditional man who believes in the old-fashioned values of chivalry and respect. William introduces Sophie to a world of traditional roles, where women are cherished and protected. Sophie finds herself drawn to this world, but she must also confront her own beliefs about gender equality.
