The Stone Brothers were born into a life of poverty and violence. Their father was a moonshiner and their mother was a prostitute. The boys grew up learning how to fight and how to survive on the streets. By the time they were teenagers, they were running their own criminal operation. They started out by robbing banks and armored cars, but they quickly moved on to more lucrative crimes, such as drug trafficking and murder.

The Stone Brothers were known for their ruthlessness and their love of violence. They had no qualms about killing anyone who got in their way. They were also known for their lavish lifestyle. They lived in mansions, drove expensive cars, and wore designer clothes. They were often seen partying with celebrities and politicians.

The Stone Brothers' reign of terror came to an end in the early 1990s. They were finally brought down by a massive FBI investigation. The brothers were convicted of multiple crimes, including murder, racketeering, and money laundering. They were sentenced to life in prison.
