Synopsis

In the tumultuous world of 18th-century England, a young woman named Eleanor Moorehouse finds herself caught in a web of intrigue and danger. Orphaned at a young age, Eleanor has been raised by her uncle, the wealthy and powerful Duke of Ashford. But when her uncle is murdered, Eleanor is left alone and vulnerable. With no one to turn to, she flees her home and sets out on a perilous journey to find her father, the mysterious and enigmatic Lord Moorehouse.

Along the way, Eleanor encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, including the dashing highwayman, Captain Jack Randal, and the enigmatic Lady Anne Hastings. Together, they face danger and adventure as they unravel the secrets of Eleanor's past and the true nature of her father's legacy.
