The first play, Blasted, follows the lives of Ian and Cate, a couple whose relationship spirals into a vortex of violence and despair. As they navigate a post-apocalyptic landscape, the boundaries between love and hate, sanity and madness blur, revealing the fragility of human existence.

The second play, 4.48 Psychosis, is a haunting and deeply personal exploration of depression and suicide. Through the fragmented thoughts and memories of a young woman, Kane paints a vivid portrait of mental anguish and the desperate search for relief.

Critical Acclaim

Tragedy has received critical acclaim for its fearless exploration of human suffering and its powerful emotional resonance.

"Kane's plays are essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the human condition." — The Guardian
