She writes about the early days of her relationship with her husband, a man who seemed to be everything she had ever dreamed of. She describes the joy and happiness they shared together, as well as the challenges they faced. But then, tragedy struck. Her husband was diagnosed with a terminal illness, and the author was forced to watch the love of her life slowly slip away.

In the wake of her husband's death, the author was left feeling lost and alone. She struggled to make sense of her pain and to find a way to move on with her life.
