Skill Level

Beginner-friendly, perfect for crocheters of all experience levels.

Pattern Instructions

Foundation:

Chain 3. Single crochet (sc) into the second chain from the hook. Sc twice more into the same stitch (3 sc). Chain 1, turn. Sc 1 into each stitch around. Chain 1, turn (6 sc). Repeat between * and * until you have reached your desired circumference. This will form the base of the hat.

Body:

Continue crocheting in the round without joining. Chain 1, turn. *Sc 1 into each stitch around, alternating with sc 2 into the next stitch around. Repeat between * and * for several rows until the hat reaches the desired height.

Crown:

To shape the crown, start decreasing stitches. Chain 1, turn. *Sc 1 into each stitch around, skipping the next stitch. Sc 2 into the next stitch. Repeat between * and * for several rows until only a few stitches remain. Cut the yarn, leaving a tail. Pull the tail through the remaining stitches to tighten the crown.

Messy Bun Hole:

Locate the center of the hat. Count 6 stitches from the center and mark it. Starting at the marked stitch, chain 30. Join to the same stitch with a slip stitch. Single crochet around the circumference of the circle, joining with a slip stitch to the first sc. Repeat until you have created a small circle. Cut the yarn, leaving a tail. Pull the tail through the remaining stitches to close the hole.

Finishing:

Weave in any loose ends. Your enchanting Messy Bun Hat is ready to adorn your head and keep you cozy in style!
