

Why This Canadian Believes Trump Is The Most Important President In The History

I'm a Canadian who has lived in the United States for over 20 years. I've seen firsthand the impact that American presidents have had on both our countries. And I believe that Donald Trump is the most important president in the history of the United States.

Trump's policies have had a profound impact on Canada. His tax cuts have boosted our economy, and his trade deals have opened up new markets for our businesses. His immigration policies have helped to reduce illegal immigration, and his foreign policy has made the world a safer place.

I know that Trump is a controversial figure. But I believe that his presidency will be judged by history as one of the most consequential in American history.

Trump's Tax Cuts

Trump's tax cuts have been a major boon to the Canadian economy. According to the C.D. Howe Institute, a Canadian think tank, the tax cuts will boost Canada's GDP by $12 billion over the next decade.

The tax cuts have also made it more attractive for Canadian businesses to invest in the United States. In 2018, Canadian investment in the US increased by 12%. This investment has created jobs and helped to grow the Canadian economy.

Trump's Trade Deals

Trump's trade deals have also been good for Canada. The United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), which replaced the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), is a major win for Canada. The USMCA includes a number of provisions that will benefit Canadian businesses, including increased access to the US market and stronger intellectual property protections.

Trump has also negotiated a number of bilateral trade deals with other countries, including China, Japan, and South Korea. These deals have helped to open up new markets for Canadian businesses and have reduced trade barriers.

Trump's Immigration Policies

Trump's immigration policies have helped to reduce illegal immigration to Canada. In 2017, the number of illegal immigrants crossing the border from the US into Canada fell by 30%.

Trump's policies have also made it more difficult for people to claim asylum in Canada. In 2018, the number of asylum claims from the US fell by 40%.

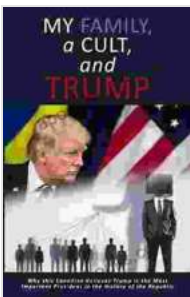

These policies have helped to reduce the strain on Canada's immigration system and have made our country a safer place.

Trump's Foreign Policy

Trump's foreign policy has made the world a safer place. He has taken a tough stance on terrorism, and he has worked to build alliances with other countries.

Trump has also been a strong supporter of NATO, and he has increased US military spending. These policies have helped to deter aggression from Russia and other potential adversaries.

I believe that Trump's presidency will be judged by history as one of the most consequential in American history. His policies have had a profound impact on both the United States and Canada, and his legacy will be felt for years to come.
